

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

The airwaves are PUBLIC property. We the people are the landlords and the media companies are the tenants. We the people pay your salaries to ensure that the roles do not become reversed. If the roles have already been reversed, then it is your job and duty to the American people to turn the tables.
